Import Personal Address Book (PAB) to Outlook 97

By Grant Miller (with help from ATUS and Microsoft documentation)
Revised by Justin Akehurst

In your Inbox, there will be a message entitled "Migrated Message File Address Book (PAB)". Open that message, and follow these steps to import your Personal Address Book:

1. From the File menu on the PAB message window, choose 'Save Attachments'.
2. Use suggested location and file name for the .pab file (USERNAME.pab) and click "Save".
3. From the File menu in the main Outlook window, select 'Import and Export'.
4. Choose 'Import from a Microsoft Mail File (.mmf)' and click "Next". Do not worry that the file extensions are not the same, what matters is that the .pab file is a Microsoft Mail file.
5. Browse to the location of the USERNAME.pab file that you saved in step 2, Click "Open", and then click OK.
6. After a short delay the address book will be imported, Select OK to finish process.

You should now find that you have a Personal Address Book choice in your main addressbook.
